Lyrics in Cyberpunk 2077:

a blind man lost, in the streets a pattern here, I need to see keep returning keep trying to leave got a bad feeling that I need to feel black dog runs at my side down a road, no end in sight the city sleeps but in my mind got a knot that won't unwind tonight is the night that we run the hunter becomes what he hunts the escape and the chase become one run run

run run

in concrete canyons squinting neon eyes black dog beside me, like shadow needing light stalk the backstreets, never at ease locked in a chase that'll never cease a bloody moon, portending doom another cruel day is coming soon have to end this but it's just begun a ?nal charge, with the rising sun

black dog in my head
guiding me to the end black dog in my head
black dog in my head

black dog beside me, like shadow needing light
another cruel day, coming soon

run run

run run
